ORDER:

The Government have decided that, in the matter of selection of ration shop keepers, the present practice of consulting the Rationing Advisory Committees should be stopped and that the following prcedure should be followed.

2. The Rationing Officers should suggest the names of all eligible candidates together with their qualifications, the ~~The~~ District ~~Supply~~ Rationing Officer, or District Supply officer concerned. On receipt of these lists the District Supply Officer or the District Rationing Officer should select the names of desirable men and arrange them in the order of priority with reference to the general instructions

issued by the Board and the Government from time to time regarding selection of ration shop keepers and return the lists to the Rationing Officers concerned keeping a copy of the list in his own. office. As soon as a vacancy arises the Rationing officer should immediately appoint the top most person in the approved list and send copy of his order to the District Rationing Officer or the District Supply officer concerned. The District Rationing Officer or District Supply officer concerned should satisfy himself that the appointment has been made in accordance with the ranking in the approved list. If new names of persons like refugees, Harijans , Cooperative Societies, etc who may have to be given priority over others come up for consideration after a list once drawn up the District Rationing Officer or the District Supply Officer should assign their places in the priority list and communicate them to the Rationing Officer.
